ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The veteran must meet the following qualifications to establish eligibility of his/her dependents:

MILITARY SERVICE

An honorable discharge or other proof of honorable termination of service from the armed forces for a period of at least 90 consecutive days of active duty service or service less than 90 consecutive days of active duty service if the veteran or serviceman was discharged or released by reason of qualifying service-connected disability.

DISABILITY REQUIREMENT

The veteran must meet one of the following service-connected disability conditions established by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (formerly the Veterans Administration) or the appropriate military service department:

- a) A former prisoner of war (POW); or
- b) Declared missing in action (MIA); or
- c) Died as the result of a service-connected disability; or
- d) Died while on military service in the line of duty; or
- e) Rated 40% or more due to his/her service-connected disability(ies).

STATE RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

1. The veteran must have been a permanent civilian resident of the state of Alabama for at least one year immediately prior to their initial entry into active federal military service or any subsequent entry into federal active military service where a 12-month break in service occurred

AND one of the following:

- a) Current Alabama resident for at least two years immediately prior to the date of application for this benefit or date of veteran's death; or
- b) Current resident who was discharged from active duty within 12 months prior to the date of the scholarship application; or
- c) Filed a resident Alabama income tax return for the past 10 consecutive years.

2. Permanently service-connected veterans rated at 100% who do not meet the above residency requirements may qualify after establishing proof that they have been a bona fide resident for at least five years immediately prior to the date of application or the date of the veteran's death. This applies to 100% permanent and total ratings only.

DEPENDENT

A dependent is defined under our program as a child, stepchild, spouse or un-remarried widow(er).

DEPENDENT STUDENT REQUIREMENTS

Students applying for benefits must meet all of the following:

1. Must be a current resident of the state of Alabama at the time of application and maintain that residency while receiving the benefit; and
3. Must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for each year that they are covered under the Alabama G.I. Dependent Scholarship Program; and
4. Must comply with Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as defined by their education institution; and
5. Must complete a Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) release form for each educational institution that they attend to authorize the release of personally identifiable information required to determine continued eligibility and as required for necessary reporting.

ENTITLEMENTS

All other scholarships and grants must be applied to required education expenses first (unless otherwise prescribed by state or federal law). After these are utilized, textbooks and applicable fees will be billed to the program up to a combined maximum total of $1,000 per student and tuition will be billed to the program up to $400 per credit hour.

Children and stepchildren of qualified veterans may receive five standard academic years (10 semesters) at any Alabama qualifying school for undergraduate courses of study.

Students have 8 years from the date the application is received at the Alabama Department of Veteran Affairs headquarters office to use their 10 semesters.

Children and stepchildren of qualified veterans are also eligible to attend comprehensive transition and postsecondary programs for students with intellectual disabilities at state four-year colleges or universities where applicable.

Spouses or un-remarried widow(er)s of a veteran rated as 100% permanently and totally disabled may also receive five standard academic years (10 semesters) at any Alabama qualifying school for undergraduate courses of study. Students have 8 years from the date the application is received at the Alabama Department of Veteran Affairs headquarters office to use their 10 semesters.

Spouses or un-remarried widow(er)s of a veteran rated 40-90% disabled are entitled to three standard academic years (6 semesters) at any Alabama qualifying school for undergraduate courses of study. Students receive 6 years from the date that the application is received at the Alabama Department of Veterans Affairs headquarters office to use their 6 semesters.

*Alabama G.I. Dependent Scholarship Program benefits cannot be granted retroactively.

NUMBER OF AWARDS

There is no restriction on the number of eligible dependents under any single veteran; however, each dependent may only receive the benefit once, regardless of changes in their future dependency status.

AGE DEADLINE

The child or stepchild must initiate training under our program prior to his/her 26th birthday. In certain situations, a child or stepchild may be eligible for our program up to the age of 30. If the applicant is a stepchild, the veteran and the stepchild's parent must be legally married prior to the child's 19th birthday.

UNAUTHORIZED COURSES

Our program does not pay for noncredit courses, remedial courses, placement testing, GED preparation, continuing education courses, pre-technical courses, state board examinations, or any classes beyond undergraduate courses of study.

SUPPLIES

Our scholarship program does not pay for supplies such as pens, paper, notebooks, tools, art supplies, uniforms, computer software products, etc.

BOOK PURCHASES

The G.I. Dependent Scholarship Program will only pay for those textbooks (including e-books and access codes) that are required for the courses in which the student is officially enrolled. Our program does not pay for the purchase of reference manuals, suggested reading materials, study guides, recommended workbooks, etc. Reimbursement will not be made.

ELIGIBILITY LIMITATIONS AND TERMINATION

Dependents are eligible to participate in the program only as long as they remain the legal dependent of the veteran from which they derive their eligibility. In the event of a divorce action, the former spouse or stepchild will be ineligible to participate effective the date of the divorce. Any educational financial obligations entered into after the divorce date will be the responsibility of the former spouse or stepchild.

The widow(er) and any associated stepchildren forfeit all entitlements upon remarriage without further consideration of reinstatement. Any educational financial obligations entered into after the remarriage date will be the responsibility of the widow(er)/stepchildren.
